2020 Stewardship Campaign

Once or twice in every generation, the time comes to proverbially “pass the torch” from one generation to the next. This is true with any organization, team, or association – and, yes, even churches. One generation lays a foundation, on which the next generation can build. We are both excited and challenged to report that the time to “pass the torch” at this church has come.

Why are we challenged? While we have been blessed by the generosity of members of this generation, we have lost many of them this past year as they have moved on to join our Lord in his heavenly home. The torch they left burning so brightly for us must be picked up and carried forward, and that is not an easy task. Last year, for example, we had an approximate $80,000 drop in income, covered primarily by our staff members taking on more duties to make up for the shortfall. Now, we need to ensure that we collectively lift that torch and carry it forward to ensure the gifts of this church and congregation are just as available to the next generation as they have been to the current one.

Why are we excited? This generation has already shown it is ready, willing, and able to take that torch. We have seen it in the wonderful response to our capital campaign in September. We have seen it in our volunteers stepping forward for mission trips and charitable work for the church and other charities we support throughout this community. We have seen it in our young people, including the volunteerism and turnout for our Vacation Bible School week this August. We have seen it in both our newest and youngest members volunteering for Sunday school duties, committee service, ushering, music, and our church services. In so many respects, we have already seen the passing of the torch.

The torch has been passed, but will only move forward if we step up to the challenge in the same way our staff stepped up last year. The gifts of the past generation must be met and replaced with the generosity of this generation, to provide for the future generations of this church. We need your already-demonstrated generosity to meet and exceed the challenge going forward.

Off the Top of My Head

By Rev. William S. Trump, Senior Minister

It is appropriate as we look back on a successful Capital Campaign and ongoing pledge drive that our focus for this month is on Thanksgiving. The elevator/Chancel project elicited incredibly generous financial support, and my hope is that the amazing generosity of our members will continue during this stewardship campaign. These gifts to the church give this year's Thanksgiving special meaning at FCC.

Dick Buchman would always call Thanksgiving "the high holy days for Congregationalists." I love its wonderful foundation in our Congregational roots and the connection I feel to the forbears of our faith. The first Thanksgiving we see depicted with the Pilgrims and the Native Americans is a wonderful pastoral kind of scene. I think we tend to forget sometimes what came before that first celebration. The pilgrims had gone through a winter of terrible hardships that resulted in the deaths of nearly half of their number. This hearty band held fast to their faith in God, and it gave them strength to survive. It is understandable why after the harvest was gathered that they stopped to worship the God who delivered them.

It is often those who have the least and those who have suffered most deeply who understand best what God's goodness and grace really means. Maybe this is the biggest danger that threatens us as a society. Never before has society seen such affluence, and yet there is a world outside our doors that is hungry. As people of faith we must respond.

As heirs of the Pilgrim Way we must remember and keep alive in our society the pure message of Thanksgiving and do all we can to keep this important message alive and untouched by the commercialism of our day. We need to remember and share the message that Thanksgiving is not just a festival of food. It is first and foremost a festival of faith. The Pilgrims gave thanks to God, not only for the successful harvest and their well filled storerooms, but for the faith which had sustained them on their journey and would sustain them through all the years ahead.

Therefore, in the Pilgrim Spirit, try and join us Thanksgiving morning and remember in worship how blessed we truly are. Take a moment with your loved ones to give thanks to God for all his goodness – for life, for health, for family, for friends, and for the opportunity to share in this community of faith that is our church.

I pray that your Thanksgiving is a blessed one.

Provide a Thanksgiving Meal to Someone in Need

On Thanksgiving, the Milwaukee Rescue Mission delivers Thanksgiving dinner baskets to people who have needed the Mission's help in the past. The generous support of First Church helps make this holiday meal program possible.

Your kind donations of $15 Pick 'n Save and/or Walmart gift cards will be collected now through November 10. Our goal is 125 cards.

Bring your gift cards to the Office. If the Office is closed, you are welcome to drop your cards into the mail slot.

The Giving Tree Supporting Foster Children

For the 12th consecutive year, we are supporting a Giving Tree benefiting children in foster care, respite care (children with very special medical or emotional needs) and counseling programs through Children's Hospital of Wisconsin Community Services. Many of these children are removed from neglectful, dangerously abusive home situations and placed into foster care or protective guard in Children's Hospital due to injuries and trauma. Take a tag off the Giving Tree, which will be in the Atrium, and then sign your name by the tag number on the master list. We then keep track of who is shopping for which child. The tag has information on the child: age, gender and one or two gift "wishes." The Giving Tree gift tags will be available from November 4th – 25th. The gift range should be about $25 or less. Please bring the gift, unwrapped, with the tag information attached to it, to the church office by Sunday, December 2nd. If you don't have time to shop, choose a tag, and tell me who you have and I'll be glad to shop for you! Your gifts go a long way to making the holiday season brighter for families in need. We are hoping you'll consider supporting this ministry again this year. For more information, contact Therese Ramseyer: 414-491-9993 / therese.ramseyer@gmail.com

Prayer Shawl Ministry

FCC has an active prayer shawl ministry that provides shawls to church members, family or friends who are in need of extra comfort. We thank our gracious knitters and crocheters for their beautiful gifts of prayerful love. For those receiving a prayer shawl, it can offer a warm hug and support, a private place to relax and renew, or something to hold on to when things seem to be drifting away.

Would you like to help with this creative mission? Please consider knitting or crocheting a prayer shawl on your own or stop by our "Purls of Wisdom" knitting group. We meet the first Saturday of the month from 10-12am. We share patterns, other service project ideas, and fellowship. Don't know how to knit but would like to learn? Stop on by; we would love to teach you.

Wrap Others in Warmth This Winter!

The falling temperatures are a reminder that cold weather is especially hard on families struggling to make ends meet. Join us on Saturday, November 16, at 5^{pm} in the Social Hall to make fleece tie-blankets and tie-scarves for those in need. It takes about two hours to create one tie-blanket from a kit. The Board of Fellowship will provide a dinner of salad, pulled pork sandwiches, dessert and beverages. Enjoy good food and great fellowship while making winter a little easier for others. Please sign up at the Gathering Table in the Atrium.

"Thanksgiving is a very important holiday. Ours was the first country in the world to make a national holiday to give thanks."

A Note From Pastor Barry

By Rev. Barry W. Szymanski, Minister of Pastoral Care

As a reader of the Columns you are familiar with the Lord's Prayer - even though you and I may often rush through praying it. When I have preached on the prayer Jesus taught us, I have suggested slowing down and praying it by phrases. When I did so recently I began to wonder what is contrary to what we pray for in the Lord's Prayer. So I tried this process, and found the result to be not spiritual-neutral, but in stark contrast to the life of one's spirit; actually quite selfish [truly the inverse of what Jesus taught]! So, what might be the thoughts of a person who has no interest in the divine:

For instead of invoking God, even as Father, there is no thought of the supernatural in any name. And the concept of 'our' is reduced to 'my' and 'mine'. Heaven is neither up, nor down, nor inside, nor outside; heaven does not exist - at least at this point in my life. The only will to be done is my will. The only 'kingdom to come' is the one I want to live in - and am creating for myself. I, myself, make my own daily bread; I need no other. I do not need to be forgiven for I don't see myself doing anything wrong as I work my way through this world; and I certainly am not going to forgive anyone who wronged me. Because I do what I want, when I want, there cannot be any temptation, nor can there be any evil. For the world is positively mine; and all power is absolutely mine; and all glory definitely belongs to me! So be it!!!!

But, if you want to align yourself with Jesus as he taught the prayer, this is it: Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen. And, I add, may we [at least in our joyful hearts] shout Amen!

- Pastor Barry
